

Jeffrey Lipton, Managing Director & Head of the North American Clean Technology Group

Jeffrey Lipton is a Managing Director at Jefferies and initiated the Firm's Clean Technology Group in 2003. He has executed transactions across the CleanTech sector for companies, including Amonix, China Sunergy, Distributed Energy, Energy Conversion Devices, EPV Solar, EnerNOC, EnerSys, Metabolix, Penford, Pentadyne Power, Solar Integrated Technologies, SunPower, Verenium (formerly Diversa) and Westport Innovations. Prior to joining Jefferies in 2003, Mr. Lipton worked at Morgan Stanley for four years in the General Industrial Group with a primary focus on the chemical sector. Before Morgan Stanley, Mr. Lipton worked at Schrodgers plc in several different sectors including healthcare, chemicals and industrials. He has executed multiple M&A transactions as well as public and private equity and debt financings during his career. He currently is a member of the Board of the Worldwatch Institute, an independent research organization focused on global sustainability issues. Mr. Lipton received a JD and MBA from Columbia University and a BS from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania.

